

Joseph Emory Dailey

June 7, 1962 - October 9, 2017

Joseph Emory Dailey, born June 7, 1962, made it his ambition to lead a quiet life and work with his hands (1 Thess. 4:11-12). He was a craftsman who knew the beauty of detail and a pilot who loved the perspective from 30,000 feet. Joey loved people in much the same way. He offered a wise perspective and loved the everyday happenings in the lives of family and friends. He was a mentor to many, and he spent years teaching young married couples at church with his beloved bride of 30 years.

He worked tirelessly to lead and provide for his family. Joey believed being a good steward meant being generous with the blessings of his life. He welcomed people into his home and always looked to make others happy and comfortable. Kelly, his college sweetheart and wife, was the love of his life, and Jordan, Jonathan, and Anna Lynn, his children, were his greatest joy and delight. Joey's life was quiet and humble, steeped in a love for Christ, and marked by a sacrificial devotion to others.

Joey graduated from Auburn University in 1986 with a B.S. in Building Science. He is survived by his wife, Kelly Dailey; his children, Jordan Schultz (John), Jonathan (Michelle), and Anna Lynn; his parents, James and Sylvia Dailey; and his siblings, Deborah Stone (Russell), Jed Dailey, and Darryl Dailey (Dawn).

“ I remember Joey - & Joey & Kellie - from years back when they were in Trussville Middle School & Trussville High School. They were both from fine families and represented what was good & right. Never remember hearing anything but good about them. Joey will be missed by Kellie and his family and so many who knew & loved him. Mary & Wayne Lowery
