

Justin Heath Byess

February 2, 1989 - May 1, 2023

Justin Heath Byess, age 34, was born on February 2, 1989 in Birmingham, AL and passed away on May 1, 2023. He is survived by his father, Jerrod Heath Byess and his maternal grandmother, Amelia Baker, along with many aunts, uncles, and cousins. He is preceded in death by his mother, Lesa Deane Byess, his maternal grandfather, Ernest Baker, his paternal grandfather, George Byess, and paternal grandmother, Willie Mae Averett Byess.

He attended Pinson Valley High School and Solid Rock Church when he was able. He enjoyed spending his time working on cars with his father, eating Mexican food, mastering video games, and listening to all types of music including Southern Gospel.

He was a loving and stubborn man who never ceased to make you laugh by cracking jokes, usually at your expense. He loved his family more than anything and had the biggest heart. Although he spent most of his adult life battling sickness and disease, he was strong and determined to fight until the very end.

“ When Justin was a little boy, not sure his age but he and another nephew spent the night with his uncle Rayburn and me. He wore glasses and when Ray went in to wake them for breakfast Justin had slept in his glasses, they were twisted on his face so Ray asked him if he needed his glasses on to see how to sleep. That was so funny. He never forgot it.
