“ I remember Kim’s first day at BAPCO. He was assigned to my unit and was a bundle of energy. He was my friend while I worked there, and was a very sweet man. We shared work birthday parties, which were a hoot. You will be missed by many, Kim.

“ I remember Kim as a funny and caring friend when he and we’re coworkers at BellSouth. We always had our work birthday parties together, which were a hoot. I am so shocked and hurt to learn of his passing. He was a very sweet man.

“ Kim was always a good friend and helped me out when I had medical appointments that would render me unable to drive myself. He could be a very caring friend. I am glad to have known him.
