“ I have know Luci for many years. Through the years she became a friend to my husband Gary. He washed her car and in return she would make us homemade comfort food. I always knew she was praying for me and my family. Luci’s wit was without fault; she was candid and blunt, and very direct in manner of speech. I believe that is what I loved the most. Luci will always be remembered in my heart. I am very thankful I can say Luci was my friend.
