

Lucretia McCay

January 28, 1969 - February 11, 2022

Lucretia Darlene McCay

Born January 28, 1969

February 11, 2022 date of passing

Resident of Birmingham Alabama

Wife, Mother, Daughter & Sister;

To know her is to love her..

and her love lives on for her family especially her daughter Bryanna.

Believer of Christ she loved the Lord and the Bible

We will miss Lucretia the one who's smile could light up any room.

She was a storyteller, always nostalgic in her memories of life with ones she shared and loved so dearly.

And even though she is gone, her smile, memories and her love will be with us forever.

Heaven gained an angel! She was greeted at the gates of heaven by her mother, stepfather, family members and friends who have been waiting for the celebration of her homecoming to be with Jesus.

Rest peacefully Angel you are home!

“ Oh You beautiful cousin that I will always love 💕 & treasure !!!! I'm several years older than Lucretia but I tried to look more like her by always having my make up on , nails & hair al spiffed up & trying to look as pretty as my little cousins Christy & Lucretia . All of both of their lives they have been the families little gorgeous Barbie dolls. Aunt Wrena always had these girls looking like little models & they did the older they got the prettier they got. I remember going to family functions that they were at & thinking dang I wanna be gorgeous like them two cousins of mine 💕 !! I ain't a ugly duckling by no means but to look as gorgeous as these two took a little work for some of us & a lot for the rest of us 😭 !!! Lucretia went through an awful lot of sadness & changes in the later years . These changes may have changed her outward appearance & caused her to make bad choices but she always loved God & her family . I always saw the good & beautiful person that we had always known . Sometimes life throws people curve balls & they strike out in life by making a bad decision. One thing she never lost was her love for her precious daughter , sister & family & especially for God . I want to thank Lucretia for inspiring me as a young woman to look nice no matter how bad I felt . I'm 66 years old now & have many health issues but come Monday I challenge every lady that comes to her memorial service to look as gorgeous as they can for her . Remember the good days & not focus on the bad days ok . Let's get dolled up for our beautiful cousins last gathering with us & make her proud of us . Let's show Christy & Bryanna how much we 💕 love them & share good , fun memories of our past years . I love you girls & I will always remember Lucretia as the prettiest , most beautiful cousin I have ever had . Love , cousin Connie Thornburg

“ I spent many of my childhood summers with my Alabama family. Lucretia would come to Texas to visit. So many wonderful memories. Glad to know her daughter is so loved and taken care of by her wonderful Aunt. We loved our visits with that beautiful girl and we are praying for all of you. ❤️🙏 Love Chaundra and family from Texas.
