

Maggie Cooper

July 29, 1955 - December 4, 2022

Maggie Cooper, age 67, passed away peacefully in her sleep at her home on Sunday the 4th of December. Maggie was born on July 29th of 1955 to her mother, Avis Gambill and her father, Ranzie Gambill. In life Maggie was blessed with a large loving family and devoted husband, John Cooper. Maggie and John enjoyed 22 years together. In her spare time Maggie enjoyed sitting with her Mom, spending time with her grandchildren, and watching her stories. She briefly worked at Pat and Turner and attended Healing Place Church. She is survived by her husband, John; her children Billy, Kent (Ashley), and Jason ( Ann); her grandchildren Katelyn, Brooke, Kent III, Parker, Billy Jr, Josh, Ava, Lillian, Amelia, Abigail, and Evelyn; her great grandchildren Riley, Jude, and Eleanor; her sisters Connie, Marie, and Jackie; her brothers Ricky, Hobert, Ed, and Junior; and an abundance more loving family members. She is preceded in death by her mother Avis; her father Ranzie; her son Bobby; and her sister Debbie. Maggie was a bold, resilient, affectionate, and loving wife, mother, and friend who will be missed dearly. Visitation at Deerfoot Memorial is scheduled for Thursday December 8th at 12:00 pm followed by service beginning at 1:00 pm. Burial will take place at Trussville Cemetery. "If we live, we live for the Lord and if we die, we die for the Lord. Therefore, whether we live or die, we belong to God." Romans 14:8

“ John, Billy, Jason, Kent
Sorry to hear about Maggie She was a beautiful person and sister. She was loved. I know she is rejoicing with our saviour and having the time of her life with the loved ones that we have lost. Her smile is bigger than it has ever been. Please know that you all our in my prayers.
Praying that he gives you strength.

Much love Jackie
