

Marjorie Parham Dykes

July 30, 1934 - July 17, 2025

Marjorie Dykes, age 90, passed away on July 17, 2025. She was born on July 30, 1934 in Amory, Mississippi. Later, her family moved to Birmingham, Alabama where she remained a lifelong resident.

She was a devoted, loving wife, mother, grandmother and friend.

Marjorie's activities included working in her church where she taught various classes and went on many mission trips. She was passionate about sports, especially Auburn football and watching college and professional baseball. She was very knowledgeable about the game of baseball and volunteered at Center Point Ballpark for many years while her son, Rich, played and husband, Gene, coached.

Marjorie and Gene, had the opportunity to travel the world due to his business connections and their involvement with the Baptist International Mission Board.

She was known as an exceptional hostess, cook and seamstress. She loved preparing for holidays and having friends and family in her home.

Marjorie is survived by two daughters, Denise Davis (Ed) and Patti Hoxsie (Ted), her daughter-in-law Donna Dykes, 9 grandchildren and 14 great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, S. Gene Dykes, her son, Richard P. Dykes, her parents, William and Jimmie Parham and her brother, Gene Parham.

The family would like to express special thanks to the staff of Kirkwood

By The River and ACG Hospice for their exceptional loving care.
