

Martha King Hammontree

December 1, 1924 - October 16, 2023

December 1, 1924 – October 15, 2023, in Fayetteville, Alabama. She died peacefully October 15, 2023 with her two sons and granddaughter present. Born in Berry Alabama to Beulah Ila Vick McCracken and Daniel DeWitt McCracken, both originally of Berry, Alabama, she grew up in Birmingham and graduated from Montevallo College with a BS degree in Biology and minor in Music and later a secondary education degree from UA in Huntsville. She worked for Southern Research Corporation in their research lab before joining Alabama Power as a Home Economics Advisor and appearing on their TV cooking show.

She taught High School in Opp, Alabama and Grammer school in Huntsville for many years. Her class room was used as a model of good teaching by visiting teachers and her love of teaching was an important part of her life. She was a long-time member of Macedonia Baptist Church in Fayette Alabama and her relationship with our Lord was an incredible influence to those around her and all of her family. She was a well-liked and admired person in her community with a reputation for her kindness, non-critical attitude, generosity with both time and her resources and her steadfast love and devotion to our Lord. She was a great and much appreciated mom and role model for all who knew her.

She is survived by her two sons James King and Daniel King, Grandchildren Andrea Jones, Jackson King and wife Natalie, Rachel King Follet and husband George, Taylor King, Shanna Holland and husband Dallas, and great Grandchildren Caleb Jones, Briana Morgan, Warren Moon, Cade Holland, Evan Holland and preceded in death by her husband Paul Hammontree and our dad James King, Jr.

Visitation will be Wednesday the 25th at Deerfoot Memorial Funeral Home on Deerfoot Parkway, Trussville, Alabama at 12pm and service at 1pm with a 3:00pm graveside service at Elmwood Cemetery following.
