

Mary Lynn Russell

May 3, 1966 - August 26, 2016

Mary Lynn Russell, 50, of Locust Fork passed away surrounded by her family after a long illness. She was preceded in death by her brother, Donald Williamson, her grandmothers; Louise O Nichols, Louvenia Kenerley, one uncle, William L. "Tiny" Nichols, and one aunt, Peggy Nichols.

Mary began her love of music sitting by the side of her grandmother, Louise O. Nichols, when she could barely stay on the piano stool. She was a member of the Tarrant High School Marching Band. Music remained an enjoyable hobby throughout her life. She was an avid animal lover. She was always caring for pets and usually had several at the time. She worked as a Bookkeeper in a family business in Florida for many years before returning to AL. Mary was a member of Pine Bluff Baptist Church.

She is survived by her parents, William L. and Patricia L. Williamson, two daughters; Ginger M. Hancock (Nathan) and Jessica E. Russell, one brother, Mark Williamson (DeAnn), one sister, Cathy Baker (Rusty), one sister-in-law, Laurie Williamson McElhiney, two aunts; Barbara "Bobbie" Jensen and Aileen "Aileen" Odom, one uncle, James Nichols, a grandmother, Jessie Williamson and a many cousins, nieces and nephews.

Memorial Service will be at her church in Locust Fork officiated by Rev. Daryl Holt at 2:00 pm on Friday Sept 2, 2016 with visitation prior to service.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to: ALCARE Hospice, 1240 Martin St South, Pell City, AL 35128, Pine Bluff Baptist Church, 6417 Spunky Hollow Rd., Locust Fork, AL 35097, or to the charity of your choice.

“ I met Mary a few times (I am Paul's niece). Mary was always good to me and my small boys. She loved my boys so much. I am so sorry for your loss. I didn't know anything about arrangements, so I was not able to make it. I live about 5 hours away. Loved Mary a lot!!! We saw her last year at Thanksgiving before we moved. She was a great person! RIP Mary!

Love,

Candy, Derek, D.j., and Hunter Higginbotham

“ My best friend for 35 years. My partner in crazy schemes, my shoulder to cry on...you always knew how to make me laugh even when things were bad. You never ever let a friend down. When Daddy passed you were right beside me. I never had to ask you to be there you were always there . I will miss you forever. Friends like you don't exist anymore... And God took the most beautiful soul on this earth when He took you. I love you Mary.
