“ I knew Matt from the internet as we shared music. I was his pal for years online but never met him. It is such a shame he is gone and he will be missed. I thought to share something I wrote for when I lost someone else. This is for his mother and family...

*In those sullen moments
A lifetime away where our life was spent
When we had no concept of eternity or any idea where time went
When the sky met the horizon in a much simpler manner
I held you close to me with a cherishing vanity
The splendor of your tender eyes
Like an ember that I will remember for one million frozen nights
The harvest of innocence
Stock piled without a single to remember them
Nothing can substitute you
Or the bond that is hanging in the fray
Ever slightly blowing away
Grain by tiny grain
Top of the hour glass; not even one remains*

“ My heart goes out to the Misso family & I am so sorry for your loss. I am truly going to miss my dear friend Matt. I will miss him calling me to come give him a haircut & miss him explaining what kind of new & outrageous haircut he wanted. I looked at the last message he had sent me & he had asked me where was a specific Bible verse was we had talked about that day & it comforts me to know he had the Lord in his heart. Matt will be truly missed. And I am praying for his family God will comfort them through this sad time.

Praying for you,
Lindsey Collier

“ *Joni and family,
My heart goes out to all of you. May God give you comfort with the precious memories of the little boy I remember. (It seems like yesterday when our boys played together) My prayers have been with you during this painful time even though I was not able to see you. Christian Love, Ruby and Luke Hamric*
