“ Matthew was my nephew. Though we didn't have many times together, when I did get the opportunity-he taught me this well. What it means to love well, love deeply. Matthew loved his family deeply, his extended family, his caretakers, and his dearest friend Jesus. He loved well and deeply to the best of his ability. Yes, I failed in comparison, but you've shown us what's really important. To love well those God has placed into our lives. Matthew, see you soon in the sweet by and by. Love, Uncle Stanley
