

Nadine Patricia "Pat" Chaney

July 8, 1943 - February 6, 2026

Nadine Patricia Chaney, age 82, of Springville, Alabama, went to be with her Lord and Savior on Friday, February 6, 2026, surrounded by the love and comfort of her family.

Sister Pat was a devoted Christian woman whose faith was the foundation of her life. She loved the Lord deeply and never hesitated to share that love with everyone she met. She was a faithful member of Ashville Church of God in Ashville, Alabama, where she found great joy in worship, fellowship, and service. Known affectionately as "Pat", she was dearly loved by many and truly never met a stranger, greeting everyone with kindness, warmth, and a welcoming spirit.

Throughout her life, Pat worked various jobs, but her greatest joy and most cherished role was being a devoted mother, a loving Maw Maw, and a treasured aunt. She found peace and happiness in reading her Bible, watching history programs, and spending meaningful time with her family, whom she loved beyond measure. Her life was a testimony of faith, love, and kindness, and she leaves behind a legacy of devotion to God that will continue to live on in the hearts of all who knew her.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Mattie Cannon; her sister, Nancy Turnbaugh; a son, David Chaney; a granddaughter, Kayla Harrison, a son-in-law, Howie McNab; a nephew, Tommy Williams, and a special friend, Jerry Chaney.

She is survived by the following: her children, Judy Bryant; Scott Chaney (Jennifer); Hope McNab; Charity Harrison (Patrick); ten grandchildren; Michelle Henderson (Phillip); Josh Chaney (Amber); Shea Willingham (Jamie); Johnny Chaney (Kimmy); Shauna Cox (Brian); Wayne Bragg; Justin Chaney; Wade Epperson; Cody Chaney (Shelby); Dylan Harrison (Stacey); Russell Brown, and Lydia Brown; twenty-four great grandchildren and great-great grandchildren; three nieces; Cindy (Larry); Kimmie; Mary; four great nieces; five great nephews; one great-great nephew; and one great-great niece.
