“ Absolutely, the best man I will ever know! I can honestly say that my big brother has touched more lives just being himself and a great guy, than I ever will being in the medical field. He will greatly be missed by not only family, but a huge group of friends. Niki, no one nor nothing will ever be able to fill the void you have left behind. I know you are looking down on us, and giving us your relentless strength and calmness that you possess. I love you so, so much, and will forever miss you. Love your Sis- Sara
