

Pamela S. Williams

October 10, 1958 - December 24, 2022

Pamela Sellers Williams, age 64 of Odenville, Al, went home to be with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on the eve of His birth, December 24, 2022. Pam was a Christian and a member of the Macedonia Baptist Church in Margaret, Alabama.

Pam has missed out on a lot in life. Due to different health issues, she has been confined to a nursing home or an assisted living facility for the last 10 years or so. Thankfully, a few weeks before she passed, she was able to leave the hospital and be moved into our sister, JoAnn's, home. She was finally home! Our family will always be eternally grateful to JoAnn for making that possible for Pam.

She was preceded in death by her loving mother, Mary Clark Sellers; father, Jackson P. Sellers; grandparents, Lillie and William Clark and George and Fannie Sellers; sister, Sandra Sellers, Smith; three brothers, Thomas Rickey Sellers, Jim Sellers (Pat), and Gary Sellers; and a niece, Angie Sellers.

She was survived by her four sisters, JoAnn Batizy, Peggy Ingram, Carolyn Putman (Marshall), and Betty Brown; seven nieces, Jennifer (Berger), Kim (Greg), Mary Beth, Kathy Lynn, Stacey, Alicia, and Brandy (Larry); six nephews, Jackie (Kerry), Jason, Rickey Jr, Jimbo (Shelley) Brad, and Nick (Kayla); eight great nieces, Harper, Paige, Amelia, Ella, Tanner, Brianna, Elizabeth, and Kaiya (Jake); eight great nephews, Maury, Jason Jr., Nolyn, Jake, Ryan, Hunter, Caden, and Cody (Cat), and two great-great nieces, Riley and Ella Mae.

Pam was a loving daughter, sister, aunt, and friend. She loved her family, especially her mom, dearly. She was her mom's baby girl, always. They had a very special relationship. She had a loving, caring heart and tried to help others when in need. She didn't have children of her own, but loved and treated her nieces and nephews like they were her own. She was a God-fearing Christian, and loved to attend church, back when she was able to go. We will miss you dearly, Pam, your love, your laughter, your humor, your friendship, and your devotion to your family. You will forever be in our hearts. God, please rest her sweet soul.

Funeral services will be held at Deerfoot Memorial Funeral Home. 5360 Deerfoot Pkwy Trussville, Al 35173, Friday, December 30, 2022 at 2:00 pm in the chapel. Visitation will begin at 1:00 pm Friday. “ My sweet Aunt Pam was my Daddy’s youngest sister. His love for her was sweet and pure. He made a point to visit her often and do for her as needed through the years. I grew up knowing how special she was and learned quickly how cherished she was by our entire family. Not just because she was the baby of 9 but because she was a sweet and loving person. Daddy would take us to visit Aunt Pam often through the years and I remember how much she loved us, how excited she got when we walked through the door, and how she gave the greatest hugs that lasted a while. I remember how she made Daddy laugh and she could always get away with giving him a bit of a hard time. She loved kids and was always entertained by them. She was playful and loved to laugh. I remember her presence at all our family gatherings and how much she loved those. I remember her visiting Uncle Jim and Aunt Pat and how much fun she had with them. She was so strong for a girl and I always thought I was a lot like her. On Christmas Eve, out of a hospital, with her loving sister Jo Ann by her side she was reunited with her her beloved Momma Mary and 4 of her siblings in Heaven (Gary, Jim, Rickey, and Sandy). She is now at peace and her health is restored. She is with her lord and savior, she is in no pain, her thoughts are clear, and she feels good again. May you Rest In Peace Sweet Aunt Pam. We will remember you and keep your memory alive until we join you in Heaven.
