“ I always loved his teaching our Sunday School class and his preaching. He truly was a man of God. My husband and I loved his whole family. Bob is with the Lord now, But I want to send the family my love and prayers at this time of grief. The Lord will sustain you and comfort you. Judy Harris

“ Brother Paul was, without a doubt, the best minister and teacher of God's word! His life was a terrific example of faith, hope and charity! And what a precious wife, children and grandchildren he had surrounding him. I will never forget him and I always have longed to hear him preach again. May God hold all of his family and friends in His loving arms through these difficult times.
