“ Well kid.... u and I have been through a lot, but this one takes the cake. Known one another since 3rd or 4th grade so there are thousands of stories I could tell. Like how your dad used to answer the phone and we would talk about u for hours just to make u mad or the first time u asked me to dance.

The one memory I cherish most is the day me, you, Daniel, Cory, Michael and I even think Jules was there we went to play basketball in Margaret. As usual, the guys being guys having a pissing contest to see whose got the best tricks. Of course u wanted to show off the most because u were the youngest besides me. Well, Daniel decides to shoot an impossible shot and the ball goes way over the fence. You looked over at me with the this smile on your face like u were gonna do something stupid. U went running to jump the fence and get the ball, but as soon as you jumped the fence your pants got caught on the top of the fence. There you were hanging there.... frolicking.... lol we have loved and laughed many times at that story. Over the years life gets away from us. Usually that never mattered with us though since we were kids it didn't matter if it were weeks, months or even years since we last saw one another.... it always felt like it was just yesterday. I just saw you two weeks ago. Makes my heart truly ache because there will no longer be another hello, or how's life treatin you. There will not be a lot of things, but I WILL always carry the picture of you in my heart. That boy on the basketball court.... smiling. Phillip Minton

“ I remember the time we were playing in dad's car when you were like 3 years old and I was 11. I moved the gear shifter and it started rolling backwards down our steep driveway. I jumped out of the car, not thinking, and when I turned around you were still in there. Playing. 😂 I was screaming bloody murder and running after the car to catch up and save you. It only rolled 15-20 feet but I thought you were done for. Then the car got stuck at the top of the ridge in a dirt pile. I'm sorry I said it was you that knocked it out of gear. You wear the sweetest baby brother and I loved playing games with you. I used to push you down the street in a stroller and pretend you were mine and remember when we made all those crazy homemade movies? When I can do it I'm going to pull them out and watch them. I love you so much and just want to hug you one more time!

We will see each other again and it will be One Sweet Day! 🥰🥰🥰

“ I miss you so much baby bro! My heart is so heavy right now. Your whole life all you've ever done is go go go. I know you're finally at rest. My whole being is crushed but I know you are with Jesus this morning so you're in a better place than I am. You WILL be remembered. You WERE/ARE loved. And I WILL see you again!!!

“ There are so many things I'm going to miss about Phillip but if I had to narrow it down I'd say I'm going to miss his contagious smile, his silly catch phrases, his willingness to always do the right thing and how caring he is mostly. I'm def going to miss singing at the top of our lungs in the car. We've made so many memories and that grin is going to play over and over on repeat in my mind forever. Spread your wings and fly high Phillip Ross ❤️
