“ My sincere condolences to Martha and family at this time. We have been Nextdoor neighbors for over 50 years and it is like losing a family member. Ralph will be missed by many! God puts us here only for so long and he alone decides when to call us home. Ralph lived a long productive life until the past few years when he became more home bound and dementia was settling in. Family keep him entertained and happy till his last day on earth. They will never have any regrets for all the time they gave Ralph while he was here. Bless these wonderful neighbors at this time! Rest In Peace Ralph!
