

Rose Ann Hatcher

February 22, 1961 - September 12, 2021

Rose Hatcher (Coomer) went to be with Jesus on after a brave 6 year battle with ALS. She was greeted in heaven by her mom Mabel, dad Ralph, her Grandparents, and her brother in laws Clyde Hatcher and Allen Hatcher. She was born in Fort Wayne, Indiana and was the youngest of 9 children. Her professional career was in banking for 30 years.

Rose was best known for her big heart, contagious smile, and her love for God and family. Her infectious laugh and warm personality could light up a room, and she always went out of her way to encourage and uplift anyone around her. She had a passion for gardening, cooking, travelling, and the outdoors. Her grandchild Connor was a main source of joy in her life and she would light up anytime she got to spend time with him.

She is survived by her husband Glenn, son Philip (Naomi), daughter Tabatha Van Vuren (Chris), grandchild Connor. She is also survived by her brothers and sisters, John, Jim(Diana), Terry (Jackie), Keith, Karen (Ray), Mary (Jim), Pam, Beth (Mike) as well as her Sister in laws Maureen Hatcher and Patricia Hatcher. Also survived by many nieces, nephews and lifelong friends who were very dear to her.

Burial services will be held at Sulphur Springs at 10AM on September 16, 2021

“ Sending love to the Hatcher family.

Rose was a fun, dear and kind lady - always ready for fun and a great time. Loved her chili cheese dip, I still make it and think of her - the best! Many wonderful memories. Hugs to you.
