“ I was one of Sara's many faithful customers who saw her every week. She will be deeply missed by us all for her devotion to us, her humor, her thoughtfulness and her caring nature. My children grew up knowing Sara. One day Sara and I decided to put an unusual color on my toes and when my oldest daughter saw it on me, she exclaimed: "Mom, does Sara know you have this polish on your toes!". I had hoped to attend the service today but my household has been struck with the flu so I am not going to be able to attend. My thought and prayers are with you and family. Barbara Screven
