“ I have so many Blessed memories of Aunt Sara and my Grandma, it's hard to pick just one. But when Aunt Sara would come to Texas, me & Papa would call them the Sisters. They were like two teenage girls . They stayed up late at night and Papa would wake them up for the Young And the Restless. I'd come over and say are yall going to stay in that bed all day? Aunt Sara would say, now Faye when you get our age, there's no reason to hurry. We're just gonna lay here in this bed, drink our coffe and eat this oatmeal pie and watch ole Victor give everyone a hard time. Then if we feel like getting up we will. If not well just stay in this bed all day and you can just wait on us, LOL! And she would just laugh. Her and Grandma were like two peas in pot. She was Special to All of us here in Texas. We Loved her so very much and she'll be greatly missed.
