“ I do hope that this is read and I can only say that Spider was a wonder man and I had the pleasure to take care of when he was at the assisted living I worked at in FT. Payne. He was just so full of good things to say to all of us. I will miss him.

“ My wonderful big brother! He was a man of faith and devoted to his family. I remember when he was 15 and got a Honda 50. He would take turns giving rides and burning up the roads. That was the beginning of his love of driving. He was my friend, my confident, protector and the best big brother a person could have! I will miss him!
