“ I love her so much she was more than an aunt to be , I know she’s in Heaven with Jesus and his angels .

“ There's so many fond memories of my Aunt Sue ❤️

I remember the time we both took our dogs for a walk at the park, it was a beautiful warm day and we shared so many stories together and so much laughter.

Great memories of just little things like fixing her hair and spending time watching a movie together and the times that we would cry together and pray together. She always looked forward to me taking her shopping.

I will always remember the times I went to church with her and Uncle Gean, Aunt Sue always wanted me to sit next to her.

I will miss her beyond words but I will always carry all the sweet memories of her in my heart.. Aunt Sue was a beautiful Angel, she loved like Jesus loves, so caring and thoughtful and so humble ❤️
