“ One of my favorite memories of Tammy as odd as it may sound, was at a funeral. I was gutted over the death of a loved one, and Tammy walked up and put her arms around my neck with a warm smile and told me it would be okay. She then gave a sly insult she knew would give me what I needed most...a smile. That's who she was, warm and caring, with an endearing snarky side that was uniquely hers. Rest In Peace sis, I love you.
