“ Sending prayers and hugs. I loved sitting in class and since then listening on Facebook to Tim. He reminded me of Brother Camp from Adamsville. Both sensitive, wise, kind and knew the Word. Tim was also faithful to watch what he ate. On Tuesday mornings when we ate after class, he would come in and fix healthy meals instead of the temping dishes we brought. I admired him for being conscientious about his health. Tim will be missed by all. But I know his family will be missing him the most. Love you guys.

“ Tim was Ricky's go to for his Lads speeches. I would recommend he ask others but he always want Tim's input on how to present it more effectively. We love your family dearly and Tim was a funny and yet inspiring and insightful loving man. He always graciously and lovingly guided Ricky in his ideas and helped him use scripture to being his points alive in his speeches. Loving hugs to Serge, Sara and Donna! “ Tim was my first mentor who took me in as his own son and he would always make sure thst I am doing good in Birmingham bible school for the deaf and when I graduated from the school, he told me these words "you will and can become a great preacher for the deaf." I will forever miss his voice and laughters.
