“ I moved away from home at 18 so me and Tina would always write letters to each other. I loved getting surprised with a letter in the mail from her. She would catch me up on the latest small town gossip. Although we spoke on the phone often, it was great having a pen pal to write to in my quiet time. She will be deeply missed.

“ *Tina was always so sweet to me, every time I saw her at Dollar General we would stand out front and talk and then before I would leave she would say Good To See You Patricia. Praying for Kristina and Her Grandson and Denise Startley.
