Tribute Wall

“ Trent was a true friend and a great dude. My good friend, and shipmate Alex had stories for days about this legend of a man from their time together in Yokosuka. Then, one day I found out he was getting stationed with us in Washington. Though I only knew him for a short while, I am so glad I got to meet him. He and I got sent to mast about the same time, and the way he took it on the chin with a smile really helped bring me back to the ground and remind me things would be alright, even if I thought my world was falling apart. You were too good for this world and we're all gonna miss the hell out of you man. Rest in peace AS2 Gilmer, fair winds and following seas.
