

Wendell Kent Wiggins

June 5, 2025

Wendell Kent Wiggins of Trussville, Alabama, formerly of Hendersonville, North Carolina, passed away peacefully into the arms of his Lord and Savior on Thursday, June 5, 2025 at the age of 63.

Kent worked at GE and Energy United Propane in North Carolina but his favorite job was with Galloway Trucking and being on the road.

Kent was a man of few words unless he was talking about the Bible and then you had better be prepared for a long conversation. He led a Bible study for many years at Living Waters Bible Church in Trussville, Alabama. His interests were varied but his hobbies included woodworking and Civil War research. Kent was a very talented whistler and loved gospel music.

Preceded in death by his father, Wendell O. Wiggins, Pell City, Alabama, his mother, Mildred Ann Williams Collins of Hendersonville, North Carolina and his brother, Bradley "Bo" Wiggins of North Carolina.

Survived by daughters, Tiffany (Chad) Ownbey of Fairview, North Carolina and Krystal Johnson of Asheville, North Carolina. Bonus children Kimberly and Jeremiah Whitfield of Trussville, Alabama.

Brother, Gregory (Mary) Wiggins of Mills River, North Carolina, Sister, Laci

(Sean) Ott of Hendersonville, North Carolina and brother Jesse (Janelle) Wiggins of Mount Vernon, Missouri.

Grandson, Dennis Johnson of Asheville, North Carolina. Beloved Papa to Shawn Welch and Cameron Whitfield of Trussville, Alabama.

Nephews, Andrew Ott, Bradley Wiggins and Jamie Breckenridge. Nieces, Charlotte Ott and Meghan Meadows all of North Carolina, along with many friends and special aunts, uncles and cousins.

A Celebration of Life service will be held Saturday, June 14 at 1 pm at Clay First Baptist Church. 6295 Trussville Clay Road, Trussville, Alabama 35173. Service will be led by Charlie Cross and David Jones, both of whom were his dear friends. This is the church Kent attended when he first moved to Alabama in 2007 where he made many lifelong friends.
