“ Wesley's my cousin, he was one of nine of us. I grew up overseas because Daddy was in the Air Force. The first time I recall meeting my cousins was at Aunt Glenda's house in Centerpoint (?). My cousins taught me a game called spoons. I was 12; Wesley was 10, Kenny and Joey (they were younger. ) If you know the game, you don't want to be the last one and not get a spoon. This was the first time in my life I got hit by a boy- we were fighting over a spoon!!

Scotty was always the one that took care of me when we visited. But, Wes was the one that opened his home to us when his Uncle Bobbie had to be buried, and always the face I saw everytime I traveled to Birmingham.

This is a hard loss - RIP Wes!!
