“ In our much younger years, Billy challenged his visiting older brother to a slalom ski spraying/soaking contest on a very cold, late December day at Pinedale. When we both came up out of the water, I realized he had a much shorter rope! He repeatedly and laughingly drenched me during two complete rounds, until Pop gave us the "cut" signal to keep me from drowning! Afterward, as Billy and I were wet and shivering in Mom's kitchen, trying to get warm in front of the open oven, Pop said we were "crazy" and then added "I just wish I were that young again". One of a lot of great memories of my loved and missed younger brother. Bob
