“ I have known Bill since childhood. He and his brother would come to visit the family. Mom would make a snack for us and then we would play outside. Bill was always a kind boy and his kindness continued into adulthood. After I left Alabama, we didn't communicate much, but it was Bill who began calling me to check in and through his thoughtfulness we became connected again. We hope his wife and family find comfort in knowing he made a difference in my life. We will miss him.

“ Bill and Joyce have been our neighbors for almost six years now, and we have cherished every moment of time that we get to spend together. Bill was such a good husband and cat dad, and we are going to miss him very much.

“ *Bill was my first cousin. As children our families would get together holidays and even for bbqs in our backyard
We would all play, swing just enjoy being together
At family decoration days we would run and play in pastures of our relatives. Bill was a kind and generous person. You could depend on him if he said he would help you. He was always willing to help my mom if she ask him*
