

Zelda Lee Grimsley

June 22, 1929 - May 28, 2022

Zelda Lee Grimsley, known affectionately as Queen Bee, stepped peacefully into heaven on Saturday, May 28, 2022, at the age of 92. She was a member of Ridgecrest Baptist Church. She retired from Metallurgical Services in 1986. Some of her favorite things included cooking, shopping, spending time with family and friends, Alabama Football, and traveling. Before her vision was compromised, she was also an avid reader.

Ms. Zelda is survived by her husband of 7 years, Mac Grimsley, and her two children, Larry Kimbrough and Jackie McGriff. She also has two granddaughters, Candi and Stephanie; two great-grandchildren, Stephen and Lauren, and three great- great grandchildren, Addison, Bella, and Hayden. Also left to cherish her memory are sister Ivy Kleiber (Bill), and sisters-in-law Betty Grigsby, Willene Clark, Pauline McGriff, and Janice (Keith) Hicks. There are also numerous nieces and nephews, as well as dear friends Cathryn "Cat" Conn, Wanda Jordan, Lynn Glover, and Van Hoang.

Visitation and funeral will be held at Deerfoot Memorial Funeral Home on Friday, June, 3, 2022 beginning at 9AM. Brother Jamie Walley will officiate. Interment will be at Union Grove Independent Presbyterian Church in Holly Pond (Cullman County) following the service.

In lieu of flowers, family requests donations to Ridgecrest Baptist Church in her memory.
